Complete an Entire Year of Foreign-Language Studies in Just Five Weeks

Arabic (101/102, 201/202), Persian (101/102, 201/202), Russian (100A/100B, 200A/200B)

Session 1: May 27-July 1, 2015
Session 2: July 8-August 12, 2015

Sign Up Now for Summer Intensive Language Courses

Enhance your résumé, expand your horizons, and earn the credits you need to graduate, by immersing yourself in one of today’s most critical languages – Arabic, Persian, or Russian. SDSU’s Language Acquisition Resource Center (LARC) offers an intensive summer format that is highly successful.

Our expert instructors will guide you in achieving practical language skills and cultural awareness through conversations, games, writing, multimedia, and other activities based on today’s latest language learning theories and practice.

Course Details

- Study beginning through intermediate levels of Arabic, Persian, or Russian by attending session 1 and/or session 2
- Earn 4-20 units of SDSU foreign-language credit in 2½-11 weeks
- Be immersed in language and culture studies for five to six hours of interactive instruction, Monday-Friday

Who Should Enroll in These Programs

Language and culture studies in 21st century critical languages open new possibilities for:

- Business, legal, and health care professionals who want to expand their marketability
- Highly-educated professionals interested in a challenging academic pursuit
- Heritage speakers who want to improve their formal language skills

Register for summer classes or join our email list at neverstoplearning.net/larc.

For more information, please visit larc.sdsu.edu/events/summer-institutes.

The course schedule is subject to change, so please visit the website for the most current schedule.

What Students Say About the Program

“It’s a lifesaver. You can get it done in the summer and graduate next semester – or whenever you’re ready – and go on with your life, get a job, and you also know a foreign language. How cool is that?”
~ Nikolai Hart

“I was so surprised by how fast and how much I learned.”
~ Michelle Nguyen