Take advantage of the ease, flexibility and quality of SDSU’s Professional Development courses online! Fast, convenient, and affordably priced, you can select from a wide variety of courses and begin learning today.

Through these courses, you can:

- Achieve greater proficiency in Microsoft Office applications (Word, Excel, and PowerPoint)
- Improve your skills in business writing
- Attract the best candidates for your business by honing interviewing and HR recruiting techniques
- Complete an SDSU Certificate program in project management, finance, marketing, and other disciplines anytime, anywhere

As an online student, enjoy the following:

- Unlimited access to all materials and courses for one full year
- Create a combination of courses or customize programs to meet your unique business needs
- Learn without sacrificing extra time away from work and family

Choose from the following course offerings in high-demand fields:

- Administrative Support
- Communications
- Desktop Computer Skills
- Finance and Accounting
- Human Resources
- Management and Leadership
- Marketing
- Process Improvement
- Project Management
- Six Sigma Foundations

Corporate Savings
Corporate customers have the benefit of a price schedule that reflects a significant savings based on volume. Your savings increase as more employees participate.

Please visit www.neverstoplearning.net/catalog for a full listing of class options. For additional information or to register, please email pdol@sdsu.edu or call (619) 594-1138 using priority code DFD1.